Gold Cup Restaurant Hospitality Critic Review

Introduction

The Gold Cup Restaurant is one of the oldest restaurants at Cheltenham, a traditional hospitality suite, it remains popular with customers who like its location within the original footprint of the racecourse. The package content has been enhanced to provide a quality hospitality package.

Location

The restaurant is within a building that leads off the iconic Hall of Fame, which is the main entrance hall into the racecourse, next to the administrative offices. The Gold Cup Restaurant sits behind the Main Grandstand.

Facility/Décor

There is no special theming, the décor is fairly ordinary with dining on round tables.

Private Tables

Private Tables are available for ten guests, smaller groups will be asked to share.

Admission

A Club Admission ticket is included, which is the premier enclosure at Cheltenham. Please note that the racing cannot be viewed directly from this facility. To view the racing, you need to walk a short distance to the tiered steps in the Grandstand.

Catering

The catering includes a Chef's Table Buffet, providing an innovative menu, followed by Afternoon Tea. This style of catering allows guests to enjoy the food at their own pace.

Drinks

A cash bar operates throughout the day.

Service

Service throughout is left to the waiting staff. There is not a hostess service.

Entertainment

The package also includes a racing tipster to highlight the top runners & riders.

Audio-Visual

There are ample TV monitors throughout the facility as well as a PA system for the guest tipster.

Car Parking

Car park passes are allocated on a 1:2 basis, car parking is situated in the general public areas.

Extras

A Racecard is included, and there are Tote betting facilities available.
